

United Way of Natrona County Staff

Shanna Harris, Executive Director

Shanna Harris is the executive director of the United Way of Natrona County. Ms. Harris has been with the United Way of Natrona County since September, 2001.

Before coming to the United Way, Ms. Harris worked for Intrado, Inc., headquartered out of Boulder, Colorado as the manager for the Texas division located in Austin. She joined Intrado after being with the City of Casper for 12 years as the public safety information systems manager where she was responsible for the 9-1-1 communications center, records and information technology.

Ms. Harris earned a bachelors degree in education from the University of Wyoming in training and development, and has a master's degree in public administration from the University of Wyoming. She is also a Rapport Leadership Institute Master Graduate.

Gayle Wieser, Office Manager

Gayle Wieser is the office manager at the United Way of Natrona County. Prior to joining the United Way of Natrona County in September of 2007, she worked for Z Financial for seven years. Throughout the years Ms. Wieser worked with a large clientele assisting with cost basis on brokerage accounts and setting up new accounts.

Ms. Wieser is a Wyoming native and graduate of Riverton High School. She has completed over 100 hours of college credit and continuing education through Central Wyoming College. Ms. Wieser and her husband Billy have two small children, Lexi is four and Jacob is one. Her interests are spending time with family and friends, snowmobiling, boating and travel.